FINANCIAL LITERACY EXPERIENCE

Put students in charge of real money choices, housing, transportation, saving, and spending so they learn budgeting, credit, and smart financial habits through fun, hands-on experience.

WHY PARTICIPATE?

- Students learn how choices impact their financial future, and learn practical life skills before graduating high school
- Schools align with financial literacy goals and state standards.
- Educators can engage students with experiential learning that sticks.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

- Students in grades 6 - 12
- Teachers & School Leaders
- Parents & Caregivers
- Youth Centered Program Leaders

HOW CAN YOU GET INVOLVED?

- Sponsorship
- Volunteer
- Share this flyer

Foster Hope • Foster Love • Foster a Child

If you'd like to make a difference in your community and in the life of a child, consider becoming a foster parent. There is currently a shortage of available foster homes in Central Florida. The steps to explore fostering are easy. They start with attending an information session - a great way to see if fostering is for you.
